

Course Content

- History of facility emergency planning
- Employer legal obligations and due diligence, codes and regulations
- Responsibilities of occupants versus owners
- Facility emergency organization
- Emergency team member roles and responsibilities
- Program objectives
- Emergency evacuation
- Fire safety plans, evacuation plans, shelter in place plans, active shooter plans
- Bomb threats or suspicious packages
- Active shooter
- Fire extinguisher training
- Inspection requirements

Scheduled sessions
open to the public

Visit our website for a current course calendar and pricing. Registration can be completed by phone, e-mail or on-line. Space is limited

Private in-house sessions

Customized to client requirements. Significant discounts apply for client hosted workshops. Current in house fee schedule and terms available on our website.

Vanguard
emergency.com

Vanguard

Continuity Management Professionals™

Facility Emergency Planning

Explore current legislation and requirements for implementation.

- ✓ Canada Labour Code
- ✓ Occupational Safety and Health Regulations
- ✓ Applicable Fire Codes
- ✓ Due Diligence

This one day session is designed for chief emergency wardens, floor wardens, restricted mobility buddies, building managers and property managers.